Terms and Conditions

1. Free warranty upgrade period is based on your customer's (End User) original date of purchase. Should service be required after the standard manufacturer's warranty expires, proof of purchase may be requested for validation of additional coverage. Resellers can also register their customer's purchase with Panasonic to ensure unit and customer information are listed in our customer service database.
2. Free warranty upgrade promotion excludes consumables and periodic maintenance / cleaning.
3. All standard terms and conditions of the Rewards Central program will be applied for the Double Rewards Central Points promotion.
4. Panasonic reserves the right to modify or cancel these promotions at any time without prior notice.
